

RAINBOW OF PROMISE EXTENDS OVER TOWN

MAGNIFICENT SPECTACLE PRESENTED LAST EVENING BY CELESTIAL DISPLAY

Old Mother Nature, slightly peeved at the actions of the almost full moon, beckoned the elements to her aid and staged a spectacle of her own. The show was scheduled to start at 7 o'clock last night, but owing to the intense rivalry the gods of rain, thunder and lightning made their debut two hours earlier. The scene was one that will be remembered for many a day. Gigantic flashes of lightning darted in and out of the rain burdened clouds. Thunder roared and rumbled. At intervals the sun would step forth and touch up the scenery with a brilliant hue of yellow. Precisely at the hour of Luna's entrance the climax was reached. A magnificent double rainbow of red, blue and yellow arched the heavens, extending from Mount Oddie to Green Mountain. From Midway hill the spectacle was sublime, as the town of Tonopah appeared framed in the colors of the spectrum. It remained suspended until King Sol disappeared behind the distant hills. The scene was then changed and the sky became overcast, continuing so the rest of the evening.

The total precipitation last night was .13, the highest this month.

HUGH BROWN'S ADDRESS IN LAWYERS' MAGAZINE

The latest issue of Case and Comment, the lawyers' magazine, is one of particular interest, inasmuch as it is devoted to the immortals of the bench and bar throughout the world. Among the interesting articles are the following: "Daniel Webster," by Everett P. Wheeler, president of the New York Civil Service League; "Alexander Hamilton," by Governor McCall of Massachusetts; "Lord Stowell, founder of British prize court law," by Solicitor Wilkinson of the supreme court of England; "Abraham Lincoln," by John T. Richards, late president of the Chicago Bar Association; "Roman Lawyers," by General Melhim of Georgia, recent president of the American Bar Association, and "John Marshall," by Hugh H. Brown, of the Tonopah bar. This article on "the great chief justice" is a reproduction of an address delivered by Judge Brown at a meeting of the Nevada Bar Association held in Reno several years ago. Chief Justice Norcross, who was toastmaster on that occasion, pronounced it "the greatest tribute ever spoken by an American to the memory of John Marshall."

VILLAIN STILL PURSUES HIM

Charley Starr of the Bank saloon is again the victim of some miscreant who does not believe in swatting the fly in order that the spread of disease may be prevented and the worst pests of modern times be eliminated. It will be remembered that his fly traps on the sidewalk were repeatedly stolen last summer. Now comes a "lowlifer" and with a chunk of masonry demolishes his latest purchase in the way of wholesale fly destroyers. Charley offers a reward for the apprehension of the miscreant.

Fort Wayne couldn't get Mr. Taft to talk politics. He just smiled. And with his political experience he is justified in smiling complacently at the thought of not being the goat.

WILSON'S RESORT FOR SALE

Ill health compels me to leave the state and offer for sale at a sacrifice the well known Wilson Resort north of Tonopah. The place covers several mining claims, is well shaded, stocked with vehicles, horses, pumps, gas engines and all appurtenances required in operating the place either for a home ranch or resort. The water supply is the best and the resort is the only one close to the largest mining camp in Nevada. The entire place with good will and fixtures will be sold. Investigation invited. Make me an offer.

HOWARD BUTZ, a newspaper publisher of Huntington, Penn., is a guest of John G. Kirchen. This is Mr. Butz's first visit to Nevada and he is busy preparing an article on his observations in a mining camp in which the Keystone state is deeply interested.
